To Whom This May Concern,

My name is Andrew Gibbons, and I am proud to offer my recommendation of the performer Brian McKay to whom I have professionally known for close to 2 years as a local comedian and most recently as a ministry partner.

During my times with Brian McKay, I have experienced an individual who shows up earlier than asked, socializes with an encouraging spirit, and keeps audiences engaged and participative. In addition, Brian is a family-friendly-entertainer who has always presented themselves with levelheadedness and grace. When I first met him at a comedy club in Scottsdale where he was sandwiched between two very inappropriate comedians who relied on crude language for shock laughs but were not funny to those of us in the audience that were not drinking. Brian came out and gave a hilarious performance that had jokes with content from the Bible and Christian culture that had both believers and unchurched people busting at the seams with an uplifting and refreshing experience that was the highlight of the evening.

Without hesitation we invited Brian to be our headliner for a community comedy night in Gilbert, AZ that was a successful outreach event. About half of our packed auditorium (for Covid restriction standards) was newcomers that had positive reviews in our follow leads because of Brian's performance. The event was geared for adults with a lot of marriage jokes in stow which to be on the safe side we provided free childcare. Many families decided to have their children in with them and the jokes were not only appropriate for the whole family, but they were genuinely funny and gave the community an opportunity to laugh with pure joy and in Christ centered atmosphere. Socializing and fellowship after the event was natural and request for similar events was frequent.

Booking Brian McKay to be your headliner or even supporting role for your upcoming event is a sure-fire way to make a huge impact and leave your clients coming back for more. We look forward to partnering with Brian McKay in the future for both comedy and marriage type events because we are confident of his quality as a performer!

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you should require any further information.

Blessings,
